

Chammah J Kaunda

20 April 1982

African Theology

pastorchammah@gmail.com Kaunda@ukzn.ac.za

Zambia

I completed my PhD in African at the university of KwaZulu-Natal on development and transformations of theological education in Africa from Edinburgh 1910 to 2012. The study focused on the ecumenical theological education within the Protestant tradition in Africa. My research has been interdisciplinary with a special focused on intersection between African Religion and Christianity, African Ethics, the Bible and African Christianity, Studies in African Initiated Churches (AIC), Ecumenical Theology, and Systematic Theology.

CURRENT RESEARCH

Topic

The Church Face of African Christianity: Implication for African Theology and Theological Education

Methodology

Interdisciplinary method
Textual analysis
Systematic review method
Indigenous methods
Theological reflection

Application

Decolonization of African thought and formulate of authentic African thought.

UKZN main Publications

Past Researches

"Doing Theological Education from the Context of Migration in Southern Africa: A Theology of Reconstruction in Missiological Perspective," in Handbook for Theological Education in Africa, editors, Isabel Phiri and Dietrich Werner (Regnum: Regnum Books International, 2013)

"African Pentecostalism Coming of Age: The Association for Pentecostal Theological Education in Africa (APTEA) in an Ecumenical Perspective," in Handbook for Theological Education in Africa, editors, Isabel Phiri and Dietrich Werner (Regnum: Regnum Books International, 2013)

2012. "Towards an African Theological Education for Gender Justice and Peace: An African Theological Reflection on the Concept of Just-Peace," Journal of Gender and Religion in Africa, vol. 18, no. 1 (July), 137-153.

2010. "Reclaiming the Feminine Image of God in Lesa: Implications for the Bemba Christian Women at the Evangel Assembly of God Church in the post-Missionary Era." Journal of Constructive Theology, vol. 16, no. 1 (July), 3-29

Future Interests

Research in African bioethics, developing methodologies for African theological fiction, theological consultancy and theological curriculum development

Extra Interests

Preaching and jogging