

Maserole Christina Kgari-Masondo

42

History Education

Phone 0833985809 Email: Chrismasondo@gmail.com

South Africa

I taught in Cape Town high schools for 11 years then moved to UCT in the department of History and Religious Studies. I was a Head of department for 7 years for Humanities at Zola High School. I am also a founder and director of The People of God Christian Ministries International. I am a Marriage Officer and Counsellor.

CURRENT RESEARCH

Topic

Socio-Environmental history and forced removals

Methodology

- Africanist approach
- Socio-Environmental genre
- Phenomenology
- Qualitative methodology

Application

- Case study of Lady Selborne and Ga-Rankuwa
- University
- History Syllabus

UKZN main Publications

1. The Usable Past and socio-environmental justice: from Lady Selborne to Ga-Rankuwa, New Contree 2013
2. Socio-Environmental analysis of land alienation and resettlement in Ga-Rankuwa, circa 1961 to 1977, Journal for Contemporary History, 2013

Past Researches

1. A Home makes one motho, - the idea of humanness, home and history in Lady Selborne's forced removals 1905 till 1977, Historia, 53, 2, 2008
2. Marriage as work in progress
3. Forced removals and socio environmental history

Future Interests

1. Forced removals as anti-environmental
2. Can a University be a home
3. History syllabus and the environment

Extra Interests

Counseling, teaching, facilitation, motivational speaking, preaching